

K-Love offers my community information about functions my family attends. They also provide an alternative source of music, inspiration and positive messages that encourage my family and others to work together. My teens would not listen if their broadcast was not as strong as other stations. We need K-Love. Thank you.